Rep. Van Taylor Announces Support for Ken Paxton for Speaker

AUSTIN – Representative Van Taylor (R-Plano) announced his support for his conservative colleague Rep. Ken Paxton for Speaker of the Texas House of Representatives.

“After listening to the people in my district, it is clear they want new conservative leadership in the Texas House,” said Representative Taylor. “Representative Ken Paxton is that new leadership. He has displayed the depth of character and dedication to conservative values that Texans are demanding and that is why I support Ken Paxton for Speaker of the Texas House of Representatives.”

Representative Taylor was elected to represent House District 66 in a special election to replace retiring member Brian McCall. Van Taylor, 7th generation Texan, dedicated family man, successful businessman and decorated Marine Officer took the oath of office on April 20th, 2010 in Plano.
